GOT LACE FIRM'S SECRETS.

German Nobleman's Son Cut Wide Swath Here—Charged With Forgery.

A dapper young man about 23 years old, who said he was E. Ruch, son of the senior member of the lace making firm of Ruch & Spörbeck of Barmen, Germany, dropped into the office of the Mechanisch Importing Company, 50 Howard street, early last January. He asked to see Ernest Mechenbach, president of the firm.

"My father sent me to this country to complete my education," explained the young man to Mr. Mechenbach, "and I want you to introduce me into some of New York's nice families."

Mr. Mechenbach advised the young man to put up at the Waldorf-Astoria, and he did so. He soon became distinguished for the suppers he gave to pretty women. A month later, he was missing, however, and the proprietor mourned an unpaid bill of $80. Mr. Mechenbach also made discoveries. One Saturday "Ruch" asked him to cash a check on the Canadian Bank of Commerce for $425. Mr. Mechenbach accompanied him to the Greenwich Savings Bank and the check was cashed. It was drawn to the order of Ruch & Spörbeck and signed by the Toronto Lace and Braid Manufacturing Company. It was then that Ruch disappeared.

The bank people didn't like the signature, and telegraphed to Toronto. They learned that the check was a forgery. Mr. Mechenbach wrote to Germany and Ruch of the lace firm replied that he had no son, but that the smooth young stranger answered the description of a nobleman's son whom he had taken in hand to teach him the lace business, but who disappeared after learning various trade secrets and getting a list of the firm's debtors in the United States and Canada.

A representative of the Waldorf-Astoria was in court and identified the prisoner as the man who fled the hotel.

FORTUNE UNDER THE CARPET.

Woman Reelies Bid Away Nearly $12,000 in Stocks and Cash.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 2.—When Laura A. Bell, aged 65 years, died a few weeks ago in this city it was supposed she had not left any estate. She had been a recluse for years. To-day in the probate court a report was made to Judge Cleveland that the administrator of the estate had found nearly $12,000 in stocks and cash hidden under the carpets in her home. He also found bank books showing deposits of several hundred dollars in local banks. The securities found under the carpet included Southern New England Telephone bonds, New York and New Haven stocks, Edison Illuminating Company stock and Gage Gas Company bonds.

The Season Of the Frock Coat

The height of the season for the Double-breasted Frock Coat and Waistcoat is here, and no man who makes any pretension to dress remains unprovided with this important apparel.

The Wanamaker stocks are unusually well provided in these garments at all seasons, but naturally our lines are at their best at the present moment. There is not a size or proportion for the tall, stout, short-stout or regular figure that is not provided for. In fact, so complete and comprehensive is the size-assortment that we very frequently fit, without any alterations at all, men who had supposed that they would have to go to a tailor to get clothing to fit them.

We do not know of another stock that approaches ours in this richness, and, where we are not quite satisfied with the fit of the garments, we have our tailors make the alterations in the same expert manner as though you were having a try-on with your custom tailor.

The materials in Wanamaker Clothing are of the very finest character, and the workmanship is of the very highest order—the collars, lapels and buttonholes all being made by hand.

Wanamaker Double-breasted Frock Coats have the same style and finish as custom-tailor work, and the fit must be absolutely satisfactory before you secure them; and yet you pay just about half what the custom tailor would charge.

Double-breasted Frock Coats and Waistcoats of black, blue, unlined worsted, imported English vicuña, at $20 to $25.

Striped Worsted Trousers, in the very latest patterns, at $5 to $12.

Fancy Waistcoats, in a great variety, at $2.50 to $6.00.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Fine Crepe Shirts Made to Order

We are showing a beautiful collection of soft, cool Scotch Crepe Shirts that will be pleasing to particular men. The patterns are exclusive with us, and the variety shown is unequalled in the city.

Wanamaker Custom Shirt-making is of the very highest order. The shirts we produce are not only superb in style, but the fit, comfort and finish of the shirts are above criticism.

All sorts of materials—hundreds of patterns, of course—but we want you particularly to see the new crepes. Plain Negligee Shirts, $5 each; striped, $6.50 each.

At the Sign of the Best Shirt, Broadway and Ninth street.

Smart Derbies That Are Comfortable

The Wanamaker Derby Hats have made a splendid reputation among men who will not forego the dignity of a Derby Hat, yet who dislike the rigid circle of the ordinary Derby.

The Wanamaker Derbies are light in weight and self-conforming, making them as easy on the head as a soft hat, yet presenting the smart character of the best Derby hats made. The man who once wears them never goes back to the rigid and uncomfortable Derbies he has known before.

Made in shapes and proportions for men of all figures, and in four grades—$3, $5.50, $8 and $10.

Second floor, Ninth street.

More of the Women's Raincoats At $12

The rapidity with which the six hundred Raincoats were sold out last week started us trying to find more to meet the demands of people who were unable to share in the offering, because the raincoats were sold out before they got here.

We discovered that the manufacturer had two hundred and twenty-five coats which were just coming from the hands of the tailors. These we have secured to sell at the same price, $12 each.

All are fresh and new, just finished, in the very latest styles, and in a very wide variety. Those who were disappointed before will come promptly now, as this is the last that we shall receive, and they are likely to go as quickly as the previous lot.

$12 each.

Second floor, Broadway.

A Remarkable Offering of Fine New Cut Glass

We have just received a shipment of beautiful new pieces of Cut Glass from a factory that is anxious to do more business with us. That means that we have secured very decided price-advantages, and we turn them over immediately to our public.

The pieces are in handsome shapes, and the cutting is very beautifully done. To illustrate the values, the lot includes about ninety ten-inch Nappies, so large that they might fairly be called bowls for salads, sliced tomatoes or fruit. They would regularly be worth $7.50; these are $4.50 each.

The same proportionate values go all the way down the line, as follows:

8-inch Bowls, at $2.75, worth $4.
Celery Trays, at $2.50, worth $4.
Water Bottles, at $3.50, worth $5.50.
Water Jugs, at $3.75, worth $7.50.
Claret Jugs, at $8.50, worth $13.50.

12-inch Flower Vases, at $3, worth $5.
Tall Bonbon Dishes, at $3.50, worth $5.
Olive Dishes, at $1, worth $1.75.

INSULTED THEN STABBED HER.

Before the Man Stabbed Her, However, She Threw Him to the Ground.

Mary Anderson, 36 years old, of 22 Sackett street, Brooklyn, while crossing New Utrecht avenue at Thirtieth street, Borough Park, at 10 o'clock on Monday night was accosted by an intoxicated man, who took hold of her arm and insulted her. She grappled with him and finally threw him to the ground.

As she turned to run away he sprang to his feet and stabbed her in the back, inflicting a dangerous wound. When she fell the man ran away. He was about 30 years old, of medium height, with a small dark mustache. He appeared to be like an Italian.

FOUGHT FIRE TO SAVE WIFE.

Woman Burned to Death in Blaze Which Destroyed Lumberman's Shack.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., May 2.—Mrs. Adelia Ramilland, 50 years old, was burned to death at an early hour this morning in a lumberman's shack a few miles from this town, on the Troy turnpike. Mrs. Ramilland was the wife of Joseph Ramilland, foreman of a gang of lumbermen. About 5 o'clock this morning Ramilland got up and started a fire in the stove. Then he went back to bed. The fire burned brightly, and the pipe which served as a chimney became overheated and set fire to the building. Ramilland made a desperate fight. He got his wife to the door, where he was overcome by smoke. Other lumbermen succeeded in getting him out alive, but his wife was burned to death.

Regan has not yet been located, but his brother, James Regan, who was held as being partly responsible for Joyce's death, is looked up to the Tomb.

A half a dozen witnesses told of the fracas. Some of them have been held in the House of Detention, but all were discharged yesterday by Coroner Goldenkrans upon Phil Waldheimer's assurance that they would be produced before the Grand Jury.

May The Month For Summer Furniture

Furniture Dept., 4th Fl.

We have ready what is conceded to be the most noteworthy array of Summer Furniture ever brought together. It embraces unequalled varieties in Adirondack Silver Birch, Reed, Rush, Bamboo and Oak—many of the pieces made in our own factories.

It is an exhibit of commanding importance to the lover of Artistic Furniture, because it is quite unlike any other Furniture display on record; and to the home furnisher—the buyer—because the economies it presents are positively unmatched.

"Arts and Crafts" Furniture.

Of this composite-style Furniture representative of a new "period," we show hundreds of different designs—a number of them exclusive with Macy's. Every piece suggests originality and strength. Many novelties in Cane Furniture are shown, including Beds, Dressers, Clocks, Arm Chairs, Rockers, Sofas, &c.—all new this season. These pieces may be had finished in weathered oak, forest or verde green.

Our greatest individual line is made up of this silver birch—cut in the great North Woods and fashioned in our own Adirondack factory. The finish is the natural silvery sheen of birch saplings. The designs are sturdy, decidedly rustic—yet extremely comfortable withal. That this Birch Furniture withstands exposure in any climate under almost any conditions makes it all the more desirable.

The seats and backs of these pieces may be had cane or slatted.

Rockers, $1.24; Arm Chairs, $2.84; High-Arm Rockers, $3.19; Extra Large Rockers, high backs, $4.96; "Jumbo" Arm Chairs, with extra high backs, deep seats and massive frames, $5.67.

(These prices furnish an idea of the very moderate cost of the Furniture. It may be had in designs suitable for any room—any purpose.)

Rush Furniture: Hand Made.

Twenty-five new and exclusive designs are shown. The stock embraces Arm Chairs, Rockers, Tea Tables, Magazine Racks and the like—all in natural green finish. Specimen values:—
